

Curriculum – Instructional Program

The Glendale Community College curriculum is an organized framework or general plan for instruction.

- A. It outlines objectives, subject matter, and teaching materials for each subject.
- B. It is used by each instructor as a guide in planning and carrying out instruction.
- C. It is the basis for providing instructional supplies and equipment.
- D. It ensures a continuous and comprehensive program of education for all students.
- E. It provides for flexibility in adjusting to the needs of individual students.
- F. It is periodically reviewed for purposes of updating, modifying, eliminating, or retaining.

Revised: 3/3/83