

Academic Interns

Academic interns are accepted at Glendale Community College from those four-year institutions with which the College District has Board-approved contractual agreements.

Academic interns are assigned only after the joint approval of the Vice President of Instructional Services, the master teacher, and the division chair involved.