

Meetings

Members of the academic staff are required to attend all regular and special meetings, including formal College functions such as baccalaureate-commencement ceremonies, called or approved by the Superintendent/President.