

Field Trips

Field trips are encouraged to furnish the student with knowledge and educational experiences not available in the classroom. Trips may be taken during class hours or at other specified times. Student safety shall be a primary consideration.